 C2d-2009 Charlottesville in 2-Dimensions

Charlottesville, A Multicultural Community
 50 Years Since School Desegregation
 March 1 – March 29, 2009 | McGuffey Art Center

Art has the power to show us our familiar world in new ways. We love Charlottesville and want to see it through the artist's eye. Artists are asked to submit two-dimensional work, (less than 3ft square and 20lbs) mounted and ready for hanging, representing their view of Charlottesville as a multicultural community. This is to recognize that in March, 1958 the Charlottesville schools became desegregated. All work submitted will be hung. A $10 entry fee per work is required. We want the artists to explore their passion for the community which is their home. It is our hope that this event offers special opportunity for artists of every age. ArtInPlace retains the right to refuse to accept work deemed inappropriate. Awards for each group will be:

4 elementary/middle school age=$25; 2 high school=$50; Adult Best In Show=$700

Work will be received at McGuffey Art Center on Sat., Feb. 28th 1-5 PM or email info@artinplace.org for an appointment. All work will be on display from March 7 to 30th with an Opening Reception on Friday, March 6, from 5:30 to 7:30PM. Awards will be presented at 6:30PM.

Artwork must be picked up at McGuffey on Sunday, March 29th, from 2-4 PM.
